 jaycross We're all Tweeters here. #prescampo -10:36 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk @jaycross It does. How are the non-Tweeters who are sitting next to you handling this? #prescampo -10:35 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 jaycross Control is almost always illusionary. #prescampo -10:35 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @MSSS I've seen presenters invite audience to tweet whatever they're thinking. Even seen some off topic comments. wait for it... #prescampo -10:35 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 MSSS are we the only ones in this chat room? is it restricted to our group - #prescampo -10:35 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 jaycross Doesn't Twitter exclude the non-Twitter folks? It's still a new thing... #prescampo -10:35 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk In all of this, I forgot the third thing...might be good to restate the three issues at the end. #prescampo -10:34 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 MSSS involves lots of trust of the audience w twitter - if they're not using # or @, you are not seeing what they're saying #prescampo -10:34 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 bussed @Jeffhurt overload?? risk of getting snoozed? #prescampo -10:34 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk @bussed I have low rez since I'm plugged into the LCD projector too. Boo :( #prescampo -10:34 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @vanriper I would keep same hashtag for polls. That way someone can go back and read the back channel and see polls. #prescampo -10:33 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk @jeffhurt @OliviaMitchell is referring to your tweets right now. Too bad we can get you to hear the audio somehow! #prescampo -10:33 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 bussed @webojunk multimon! #prescampo -10:33 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 jaycross Thanks, Jeff. I did not know about that one. #prescampo -10:33 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk This really slows down a presentation overall. Very distracting. #prescampo -10:32 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @webojunk Why not let Twitter be your notes? That way you're sharing with others too. #prescampo -10:32 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @jaycross Use Polldaddy.com to set up Twitter polls. #prescampo -10:32 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk I can't take notes on the side and have a running commentary! Need a split window so I can take notes. #prescampo -10:31 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @OliviaMitchell Let them post questions, comments. Let them RT to others virtually--good learning and retention occurs then. #prescampo -10:31 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 vanriper When doing poll, would you do that with a separate tag from main event hashtag? #prescampo -10:31 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 bussed Like the different channels for flipchart and backchannel RT @Jaycross (done that right?) #prescampo -10:31 AM Mar 1st, 2009

-  bussed perfect, RTs are the way to go :) #prescampo -10:29 AM Mar 1st, 2009 ↩ ☆
-  webojunk @OliviaMitchell: Twitter is like a virtual flipchart #prescampo -10:29 AM Mar 1st, 2009 ↩ ☆
-  Jeffhurt @bussed Retweets. When there's a good tweet, often it will get retweeted and the symbol RT followed by @ and name. #prescampo -10:28 AM Mar 1st, 2009 ↩ ☆
-  webojunk This is so trippy. We have people in California, a remote tweeter in TX, and a presenter in NZ. My head. cannot. process. #prescampo -10:28 AM Mar 1st, 2009 ↩ ☆
-  bussed @Jeffhurt What's RTs? (sorry, new to this) #prescampo -10:28 AM Mar 1st, 2009 ↩ ☆

 Jeffhurt @webojunk I agree. I've seen it done where tweets are displayed on screen in room as presenter talks. Presenter follows monitor #prescampo -10:25 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 jaycross Clearly, we need vocal Twitter. #prescampo -10:25 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 jaycross Alternatively, you can use Backnoise.com which does not require joining anything. #prescampo -10:25 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 o\_o bussed how about having a convention of special tweets that get highlighted to the presenter - audience self-selected? #prescampo -10:24 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk Many apologies to my regular tweeps! You can use <http://twittersnooze.com> for the next hour or so #prescampo -10:24 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @OliviaMitchell 4 Face2face mtgs, Have a couple Tweepers monitor tweets and pose ?s as they can. Take brks and ask tweeps to ask 4? #prescampo -10:24 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 jaycross Courage? It actually makes it easier to see the stream live. #prescampo -10:24 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk Second suggestion: Display a Twitterstream while presenting. (This requires multitasking. I sux0rs at that) #prescampo -10:24 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 vanriper Olivia suggests that presenter have a separate person as twitter monitor #prescampo -10:24 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk @jeffhurt We'll try to tweet what @OliviaMitchell says. 1st suggestion: Take TwitterBreaks between sections in your presentation. #prescampo -10:23 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 vanriper @Jeffhurt Thanks for the TweetChat.com recommendation. #prescampo -10:22 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @webojunk Would love to but I'm on a slow computer. Upgrading another one right now too. #prescampo -10:22 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 OliviaMitchell What suggestions do you have for monitoring the twitterstream while you're speaking? #prescampo -10:22 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 Jeffhurt @MSSS Create the # Hashtag on Twitter and then Tweetchat picks it up. #prescampo -10:22 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 jaycross The audience is revolting #prescampo -10:21 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 webojunk Oh, look! Mary's here! Hi, Mary! #prescampo -10:21 AM Mar 1st, 2009

 MSSS so tweetChat.com provides the opportunity to create the chat room? Or do you create the chat room first on twitter? #prescampo -10:21 AM Mar 1st, 2009
